THE PRES AND MUSIC

"PERMANENT GARDEN" PLEASES WOMEN'S CLUB AUDIENCE.

A large audience interested with delight to the splendid concert given by the Women's Musical Club in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon, and all through somewhat long, it lost nothing in interest for that reason.

The principal item on the program was, of course, "In a Persian Garden," by Lita LeBlond, and a more pleasing combination of singers could scarcely be imagined than those taking part, namely, Mrs. McLean, soprano; Mrs. Bowers, contralto; Dr. Arthur Hargrave, tenor; and Mrs. MacFarlane, bass, while Mr. Vernon Hargrave assisted at the piano.

To those who had heard the work when the club gave it some two years before, the pleasure was, if anything greater, and the spontaneous applause given to these talented vocalists as each gave a well-rendered solo, or all took part in the chorus work, in which the blending of their voices was most harmonious, testified to the keen enjoyment of all. It was a most finished performance and a rare treat to all.

The first part of the program was composed of several vocal work, with a pleasant variation in the shape of three solo songs played by Mr. Hargrave, and the melody notes of his instrument and the soft tones he produced, giving distinctive features of his playing.

Miss Seymour sang three pretty ballads in the "The Song of the Sea," and with finish. Madame Hargrave's beautiful contralto was heard in two solo numbers, and O. Pearson, Arkes gave a group of songs in which his piano accompaniment was heard to good advantage.

"GOLDEN DREAMS" FEATURE AT PANTAGES TODAY.

"Golden Dreams" the headline act at Pantages theatre this week is said to be one of the most elaborate scenic productions ever put out for vaudeville purposes. There are eleven scenes of great beauty including an Arctic snow-bound region, a trip into Babylon, and a gorgeous poppy field with full blown flowers and a development of beautiful young girls when the magnificence of the Fairy Queen touches them. This and many other marvellous transformations will greet the eye when the act is produced for the first time at the theatre, this afternoon.

Miss Marguerite Falar, a professional little dancer, and sister, will be seen in the role of Golden Lotus of the Chinese, who starts out to find a happy brother for a playmate. In addition there are several other ballads, the "The Song of the Sea," and a huge polar bear. During the several song numbers will be interpolated.

As an added feature to the bill Miss Lita LeBlond and her company will have a pleasing playlet of newspaper fiction entitled "The Crime and the Girl," which deals with the doings of a gay society who enters the sanctum of a dramatic editor. The story is filled with quaint and homely humor, and is a most interesting and amusing playlet. Miss LeBlond will be supported by a capable cast.

Headed off Jack, fifteen in number, will have a place on the program. This act, which has been seen just a similar nature on the stage, told his animals are all acrobatic beasts.

Bob Althoff, the Male Mello, who is well known in the city, will return to Pantages with a new repertoire of songs including the very latest success of the coast, "The Little Church Around the Corner."

"YELLOW PERIL" PLAYWRIGHT AT EMPIRE TODAY.

Interest in the question of the Japanese invasion of America has been stimulated during the last year or more by the dramatic efforts of Albert Cowley and his company in their play "The Yellow Peril" and the latter a four-act play of great power.

"The Yellow Peril" comes to the Empire theatre this afternoon for an engagement of six performances, with Miss Morris, former leading woman for James K. Hackett. Miss Morris is supported by an excellent company, and the sketch is well worthy of the best efforts of its actors.

Other talent will include Bert Fitzgerald, the comedian with a melody and all his own music, and with his South Sea trapezoids; Dale Lott, the little dynamo; Wilson Pearson in "The Mystery of the Yellow Peril" and Vera Vera in a hodge-podge of Japanese and English, and Marie and Duffy in eccentric gymnastics.

FISHER OF THE PLAINS AT LYCEUM THEATRE.

"Fishes of the Plains," one of the best dramatized versions of a famous book will be offered at the Lyceum theatre all this week, starting with performance tonight. The scene of the drama is laid out far from Lethbridge in the southern part of Alberta, and the Mounted Police play an important part in the unfolding of the plot, which has to do with love and murder.

The usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be played at the Lyceum this week.

"BARBIE" RETURNS LATER THIS WEEK.

"The Barrie," which has scored a success of not less proportions at the Lyceum theatre on two previous occasions, comes to the Lyceum theatre this week, starting with performance tonight. The scene of the drama is laid out far from Lethbridge in the southern part of Alberta, and the Mounted Police play an important part in the unfolding of the plot, which has to do with love and murder.

The usual Wednesday and Saturday matinees will be played at the Lyceum this week.

DRAWING NEARER TO COMPROMISE ON HOME RULE FOR IRELAND

Aguila's Manchester Speech Is Taken as Acceptance of Consistent Settlement

IMPORTATION OF ARMS INTO ULSTER PROHIBITED

Carsonites Declare This Is Case of Looking Stable After the Horse Is Stolen

MOVING ARMS TO OUTLIVING TOWNS.

Belfast, Ireland, Dec. 6.—The Belfast movement has been considered among the most important of the Ulster Unionists by the royal proclamation prohibiting the importation of arms and ammunition into Ireland. During the night large quantities of arms lay and ammunition were moved from Belfast into other Ulster towns in automobiles for fear the authorities might put the arms out of the country. At last the war stores already collected.
 The customs action here has made their first advance under the terms of the proclamation this morning, when they declared the cases of ammunition and eight cases of rifles and bayonets.

London, Dec. 6.—Premier Asquith's speech at Manchester, which is read as a virtual acceptance of the Ulster Carson's settlement by conference and the terms of the government's surprise proclamation prohibiting the importation of arms into Ireland, has completely changed the whole face of the Ulster question. Some fears are expressed that the proclamation may tend to neutralize the apparent re-approachment of the party leaders, but the general opinion is that the impossibility of a settlement by consent has been vastly advanced.

It is pointed out that the men of Ulster have more than enough arms, and that, therefore, the proclamation is more likely to hit the counter Nationalist "armies."

Action Is Too Late.

Sir Edward Carson says that the proclamation will not make the slightest difference in the action being too late.

Mr. P. E. Smith, M.P., says that it is easier to make such a proclamation than to enforce it.

The Morning Post suggests that one of the possibilities of the situation may be that Belfast, being a resistant city, the government will unwittingly be creating in Belfast an industry, equaling that of Birmingham.

The Daily Chronicle welcomes the proclamation as showing that the government meant business and expresses the hope that army officers who threaten use of force will thereafter be treated as traitors.

Will Ulster Be Disarmed?
 Some of the Ulster journalists forebode the second stage of the disarming Ulster, which they fear will have terrible consequences.

The Daily Graphic hints at this view, when it says that the proclamation is a grave blunder, either too late, because most of the arms have already been done, or too soon, because it should have been reserved until all attempts at reconciliation had failed.

The Morning Express, coupling the two matters, used the headlines "The cabinet in a panic; Barreder speech by the Premier."

Prohibit What Has Been Done.
 By referring to the proclamation, it says: "The ministers chose this hour to prohibit what has taken place, to make illegal a traffic that has been completed. A more futile folly was never seen."

Commenting upon the premier's speech, it says: "In effect Mr. Asquith withdraws the home rule bill and consents to Ulster's terms, but unhappily experience compels us to walk warily and to ask for how long the Manchester policy will hold good."

The Graphic takes a similar view, declaring the speech is the most hopeful sign yet of the government's desire for a settlement by consent, but the coincidence of the arms proclamation, compels the Ulsterites to fear a mental reservation.

Ulster Unperturbed.
 London, Dec. 6.—Ulster is unperturbed by the royal proclamation issued last night, prohibiting the importation of arms into Ireland. One of the principal members of the Ulster provisional government said last night: "The authorities have looked the stable door after the horse has been stolen. For the past eighteen months, arms have been brought into the country in very great quantities, and we possess all we require. In the meantime, and if we desire any more, we shall bring them in, despite all the proclamations issued by Dublin Castle."

CHARGED WITH ARSON.

TORONTO, Dec. 6.—Tramper Miller of the Royal Canadian Dragoon, seventeen years old, was arraigned in court Saturday on a charge of setting fire to a barn at Stanley Harbour on the evening of Nov. 15. He was charged with arson. He was brought back to the barracks by his brother, Cal. Danes remained him opportunity to communicate with his

LIE IS FLUNG AT M'NAMARA MEETING

A. T. Mode Makes Serious Charge and Promptly Is Shown to Be Wrong

(From Evening Edition.) At the McNamea meeting in the Bijou Theatre, Wharf Avenue, on Friday night, one of the chief incidents was a charge made by A.
 T. Mode that J. D. Potter was on the payroll of the city while also acting as manager of Shor's committee rooms.

"I have it," it is not so," "I'll tell the truth" came from different parts of the audience.
 Mr. Mode then proceeded to read from a copy of a voucher to show that Mr. Potter had been paid for 11 days' work at $3.00 per day as street foreman, and added:
 "Mr. Potter has not been working for the city, but has been working as organizer for Mr. Shor."

When the applause subsided, some one shouted: "It is a lie."
 Then P. C. Freeman was called on the platform and he said:
 "It is a lie."

"How do you know?" replied Freeman.
 J. D. Potter also mounted the platform and said that he had been in the city for twenty years and the officials knew his record.

When the applause subsided, some
 one shouted: "It is a lie."
 Then P. C. Freeman was called on
 the platform and he said:
 "It is a lie."

Richardson from his home by a subterfuge, placed her sister with a scolding, from her scolding, and fighting to the edge of the town with a warning letter to return.

Mrs. Richardson is not vindictive against her former friends. She was satisfied with conviction and was agreeable to letting the women off with a fine. She has a civil suit for $10,000 pending against them.

Edward Kreppel also was indicted with the six women. It was charged that, dressed in the garb of a woman, he assisted in riding Mrs. Richardson on a rail. He had disappeared.

Entered Kerrobert Jail and Attacked Prisoner With Acid

Two Men Fearing Disclosures Concerning Cattle Stealing Enter Jail in Saskatchewan Town and Mutilate Prisoner, Who Is Now in Hospital

Kerrobert, Sask., Dec. 6.—Early this morning the local jail was broken into by two men and a prisoner named Pettit, who was recently brought here from Regina, was attacked and a mixture of sulphuric acid and other corrosives thrown on him. He was left unconscious but revived later and made his way to the B.N.W.M.P. detachment. He is now in the hospital suffering from burns and concussion of the brain. The mounted police have taken up the case.

Pettit has had his trial postponed.
 It is believed some of the men implicated in the death of several horses at Kerrobert had Pettit, fearing disclosures against them.

Suffragettes Resort To Arson In Prosecution Of Campaign of Revenge

Exhibition Buildings at Liverpool and Manchester Are Destroyed by Fire—Attempt on Aldine Race Course Grandstand Fails—Mrs. Parkhurst's Release Expected

London, Dec. 6.—The campaign of revenge for the arrest of Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst was continued by the militant suffragettes today. They had marked for destruction various buildings and grounds owned by the on the race tracks in Liverpool, where Premier Asquith is spending the week-end, and delivering a series of political speeches. Two of the items on the militant program were curried out. The arson squad burnt down the exhibition buildings at Liverpool and Manchester. Their third attempt, the destruction of the grandstand being frustrated owing to the approach of a policeman as they were preparing to set fire to the grandstand on the Aldine race course. The loss in the Liverpool and Manchester fires exceeds $100,000.

Expect Her Release.
 • Exeter, Eng., Dec. 6.—Exeter jail was today surrounded by militant suffragettes in anticipation of the release or release of Mrs. Pankhurst. A number of automobiles were at hand ready to give chase in case the prisoner should be taken to some other jail. It is understood that Mrs. Pankhurst cannot be forcibly fed owing to the condition of her heart. The police hope, however, to keep her in custody until after the demonstration in London announced for tomorrow.

REFUSE TO ACCEPT TERMS OF SETTLEMENT

The Great Western Railway Men Think Conditions Be Employment Onerous

London, Dec. 6.—Many of the 1,200 employees of the Great Western Railway, who have been on strike since Wednesday, refused today to comply with the terms of the agreement made up yesterday by the union leaders at a conference with representatives of the board of directors. They regard the conditions of the agreement as unacceptably onerous.

Besides the condition that neither James the locomotive engineer who started the strike by refusing to load merchandise, which had been handled by Dublin strike-breakers, nor Rep-rinde, another prominent official, shall be re-employed, the terms limit that all the men must accept a wage increase and acceptance from 25 cents to 60 cents each to the London hospitals.
 The employees are not required to pay them for the time they were out on strike.

The strike was never sanctioned by the union officials.

TO HOLD SUNDAY BAND CONCERTS IN WINNIPEG.

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 6.—While many parts of the country are covered with snow and the weather is cold, Winnipeg is enjoying such pleasant climatic conditions that the parks board had made arrangements for unique events to transpire Sunday afternoon, when open air band concerts will be given in two of the city parks.

 J. D. Potter also mounted the plat-

 Friday night, one of the chief incidents was a charge made by A.

 payroll of the city while also acting
 as manager of Shor's committee
 rooms.

"I have it," it is not so," "I'll
 parts of the audience.
 Mr. Mode then proceeded to read
 from a copy of a voucher to show that Mr. Potter had been paid for 11
 days' work at $3.00 per day as street
 foreman, and added:
 "Mr. Potter has not been working for the city, but has been working as
 organizer for Mr. Shor."

EUROPE IS BECOMING IMPATIENT OVER THE MEXICAN SITUATION

U. S. Being Asked When Termination of Present Conditions Will Take Place

Washington, Dec. 6.—Guarded inquiries are being made at the State Department by representatives of some of the European governments as to the prospect for an early termination of the present conditions in Mexico, which are increasing serious burdens upon foreign interests.

There is no evidence that these inquiries have had any effect on the developments of the administration's policy, in connection with Mexico.
 There is much unofficial talk, however, of a probable recognition, as the Constitutionalists are in possession of more than half the country.

The administration officials here are looking upon the present developments as a result of the extraordinarily successful campaign of the rebels and every precaution is being taken to make certain the protection of foreign life and property at the expense of the trouble.

Secretary Bryan today took consideration to make an emphatic denial of a report emanating from the Mexican press that Queen Wilhelmina, of Holland, had undertaken to intervene to bring about the withdrawal of General Huerta and the restoration of peace.

Further Revelations of Despicable Treatment Meted Out To Convicts

Regularization in Kingston Penitentiary Which Forbids the Use of Tobacco by Prisoners Cause of Most of the Trouble—Officials Stole Bible From Convict's Cell Because He Had Made Notes in It

Kingston, Ont., Dec. 6.—That there is a regular traffic between convicts and guards by which money and tobacco are supplied the convicts for a consideration was brought out at the sitting of the penitentiary investigation commission here this afternoon. An Italian convict swore that he received money and tobacco from a guard for a "kickdown." There is a regular tariff, by which the guard takes half the money and a quarter of the tobacco that is supplied to the convict.

Refuse to Give Names. "What the trouble that I had here is through getting tobacco," said one convict. The convicts refused to give the names of the guards who supplied them.

The result of this evidence will most likely be that the commissioners will recommend a regular issue of tobacco to the convicts every week. Several officers have sworn that the absence of tobacco is responsible for all the trouble with the convicts. A convict told the commission that he had been punished for writing on a regular tariff, by which the guard takes half the money and a quarter of the tobacco that is supplied to the convict. He had been granted permission by the warden to write these articles, and was then told by that official he had been penalized day-draw duty for the offence. Stole His Bible. The witness also said that officials had stolen a Bible from his cell, in which he had made notes of incidents.

$12,500 For "Morie" Fine. A record fee of $12,500 was paid to Emory Dethin by a Berlin film company who had had her appear in a lion's cage before the camera. She was also insured by the same company for $12,500.

The popularity of the night clubs among the aristocratic set is arousing the resentment of hotel keepers, who must close at 12.30, and thus lose much trade, while the clubs can remain open all night. The hotel men are demanding that the law be amended so as to give them an extra half hour for supper guests. The Duke and Duchess of Edinburgh, being unable to wait any longer for Mr. Lloyd George's decision on the duke's offer to sell his deer forests, are going on a hunting cruise for three months to the West Indies. Lord Hardwicke is now ending.

BOARD OF TRADE TO TALK RAILWAY TO THE FAR NORTH

Is Line Connecting Edmonton With Yukon and Alaska at All Possible?

MAJOR GRIESBACH TO GIVE SOME FACTS

A Meeting Will Be Held at One o'clock Tuesday in Empire Auditorium

(From Evening Edition.) The regular monthly meeting of the board of trade will be held on Tuesday next, December 9th. As in the case of the last meeting, which was considered very satisfactory, the members will meet at the Empire Auditorium, Second Street, at one o'clock sharp, and the meeting will open for business at 1.15. The first meeting was over at two o'clock, and the members were back in their offices at the usual time or earlier. In addition to the large amount of business usually dealt with in the report of the council, and such other matters as may arise, a number of special interest will be discussed at this meeting. At various times and in various quarters there has been more or less agitation for a railway to the Yukon and Alaska. This has generally been assumed to be a British Columbia project, though occasionally such a road if ever built should follow a route lying for a considerable portion of its length east of the mountains, which would mean that it would start from Edmonton. Some people think that will be discussed at the meeting.

Is such a railway a commercial possibility? Is it practicable as an engineering problem? What are the international aspects of the matter? If it is a practical project, have Edmonton and Alberta any interest in the matter? Major W. A. Griesbach, a member of the board, has been collecting a lot of interesting information bearing on this subject, which, on the invitation of the president, he has consented to lay before this meeting.

WIRED WIRELESS MESSAGE
Can Be Sent Over Telephone Wire Without Interrupting Conversation Taking Place.

London, Dec. 6.—British army circles are much interested in a demonstration to be made here on Dec. 16th of a new, so-called "wired wireless" method of transmitting messages, which is the invention of Lord Dunsley, military attaché of the American embassy. By means of the device, wireless messages, it is said, can be sent over telephone wires while the latter are in use and wireless messages transmitted without interrupting the conversation.

"CARNIVALIA"

The Shopping Carnival of All Nations

On Monday at the hour of 12 o'clock will be opened a Carnival of Christmas presentations. Led you be unfamiliar with the "Carnivalia" and its advantages, let us explain that it is a commercial event well known on the continent, established at festive seasons for the benefit of those having slender purses and whose obligations demand exchange of gifts. We believe that this is the first introduction of "Carnivalia" in Canada.

Patrons will have opportunity of inspecting a magnificent array of every kind of merchandise—thousands of dollars worth, suitable for presentations on one floor during the seventeen days before Christmas. The fourth floor, where the Cafeteria and Restaurant is, is to be given up entirely to this great event, and visitors will be invited to inspect all the new additions now nearing completion. All goods will be displayed at a special "Carnivalia" price at booths provided over by salesmen in the national costumes. The decoration will be most attractive. Languages spoken are French, German, Italian and English.

Members of the International Orchestra will be in attendance from 2 o'clock until 5 o'clock and will perform program of all national airs.
